

Privacy Policy

Scope

This Privacy Statement applies to all AMBIO AS activities and covers all work and activities performed by Ambio AS at our own premises (including home offices), all our customers' premises, and all other contexts and locations where we represent ourselves or our customers.

The privacy statement also covers all interaction with customers, prospects, partners, and suppliers, regardless of communication form.

Privacy

Ambio AS only stores information about contact persons in the companies with which we have a professional relationship.

This information includes only:

- Name
- Position in the company
- E-mail/telephone used in the professional relationship / the information has been collected as a result of professional contact with representatives of companies in these contexts:
- Contact in connection with B2B marketing and sales
- The company that is our customer or supplier
- Collaborative company
- Participants on courses and or events organized by Ambio AS
- Company /employees with companies who have actively entered into an information subscription from AMBIO AS.

The purpose of this information is to be able to maintain the business relationship and also to be able to inform about and offer products and services to interested companies.

The rights of the registrants

- Access to registered information, correction and any deletion of data will be carried out on request to our CEO / general manager.
- AMBIO AS has no routines for profiling or automated processing of personal data.
- We never provide or give/sell personal information to 3rd parties.

Our products

Data processing agreements are entered into between AMBIO AS and the companies that use our products.

The systems that we trade with have minimal use of personal data and are limited to including the names, titles, email and telephone number to those employee we work with on a regular basis in order to maintain a professional business relationship.

Confidentiality

All employees with AMBIO AS are subject to a duty of confidentiality within the scope of this declaration.

Signed Lars E. Hauge, CEO on May 24th 2018-.